 - iii. Secretary-Treasurer Report to the Trustees
 - iv. Recommendations made to the President and Secretary-Treasurer of the District Council
 - v. Secretary-Treasurer's response to recommendations
 - vi. Concerns that have not been addressed by the District Council Executive Board

Section 8 - Sergeant-at-Arms

It shall be the duty of the Sergeant-at-Arms to guard the inner door and to admit no one but members in good standing or officers and officials of the Canadian Union of Public Employees, except on the order of the President and the consent of the members present. The Sergeant-at-Arms shall not permit any member to retire from the meeting without permission of the President. ~~He/She~~ They shall assist the Recording Secretary in maintaining the record of membership attendance at meetings of the Council on the official record kept in the charge of the Secretary-Treasurer. ~~He/She~~ They shall perform such other duties as may be assigned by the President from time to time.

Section 9 Communications Officer

The Communications Officer shall be responsible for maintaining and publicizing the website; shall be responsible for assisting with membership engagement; shall be responsible for ensuring that the website, Facebook page, Twitter account and the email list are current and used to serve the objectives of the Council, for the good of the Union, and for regular communication among the Executive Committee and delegates; and shall assist the other officers in the carrying out of their duties where required.

Section 9 10

The Executive Board shall be the governing body of the Council between meetings. It shall take such action as may be necessary to carry out the instructions of the general and special meetings of the Council and enforce provisions of its By-laws and of the Constitution. It shall prepare plans for carrying out the objectives and policies of the Council and generally manage its affairs in the interests of its affiliates.

The Executive Board shall meet prior to each regular meeting of the Council, at least eight (8) times a year.

Section 10 11

The Executive ~~board~~ members shall serve as a Chairperson of a standing committee of the Council as decided by the Executive annually.

The Executive ~~board~~ standing committees of the council will be:

1. Constitution and By-law's committee
2. Resolution's Committee

Metro District Council will hold biennial elections for election of Metro Delegates for appointment to CUPE BC committees and working groups.

Elected delegates to CUPE BC committees and working groups will provide a report or update at the Metro District Council meetings.

Section 11 12

In the event of any officer failing to answer the roll-call for

- Three consecutive regular meetings, or

- Three consecutive executive meetings

without having an acceptable reason to offer for his/her their absence, his/her their office may then be filled at the next regular meeting. Nomination, eligibility for nomination and voting shall be in accord with the provisions of this Constitution.

Section 13

Where travel would lead to furthering the objectives of this Council, the President or designate shall, as per Article Ten, be able to attend events including those outside of the Council's geographical region.

Where conflict could be perceived due to the President of the Council running for election/ office, a designate shall be appointed from the Council's Executive Board.

ARTICLE SEVEN MEETINGS

Section 1

Regular District Council meetings shall be held on the second Thursday in the months of January, February, March, April, May, September, October and November.

Section 2

The Annual Meeting shall be held on the second Thursday of the month of May in each year at a time and place as set by the Executive Board. A social will be held after the general meeting.

Section 3 - Quorum

- The minimum number of delegates required to be in attendance for the transaction of business at any regular or special meeting shall be 25 members, representing at least 5 locals, including at least 4 members of the Executive Board.
- A Quorum of the Executive Board shall be five (5) Executive Board members.

Section 4

Each Delegate, on entering the Council Chamber, shall record his/her their name in the official register provided for that purpose.

Section 5 - Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Metropolitan Vancouver District Council may be required, and shall be called by the Executive Board or may be requested in writing by no fewer than 20 delegates from at least 5 locals. The President shall immediately advise delegates when a special meeting is called, and ensure that all delegates receive at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice of the special meeting and the subject(s) to be discussed. No business shall be transacted at the special meeting other than that for which the meeting is called and notice given.

ARTICLE EIGHT ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1 - Nominations

1.Nominations will be received at the regular Council meeting held in the month of April. At that time, nominations will be declared closed.

2.Nominations will be accepted from members in attendance at the nomination meeting or from those members who have allowed their name to be filed in writing or electronically at the meeting, witnessed by another member.

3.To be eligible for nomination, the nominee must have been accepted into the Council and continue to be a delegate in good standing. If an elected officer is no longer an accredited delegate from an affiliated local union, their position will be declared vacant and be filled through by-election.

4.A member may accept nomination for a position while holding office in any position. If successful in the election, their resignation from their current position will take effect at that time.

5.No delegate will be eligible for nomination if their local is in arrears of dues and/or assessments.

Section 2 - Elections

1. The President and Recording Secretary are elected in even years. The Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer and all other positions are elected in odd years. Trustees are elected yearly on a rotational basis.
2. At a general meeting, at least one month prior to Election Day, the President will, subject to the approval of the delegates present, appoint an Elections Committee consisting of a Chief Returning Officer and assistant(s). The committee will include delegates of the Council who are neither Officers nor candidates for office. The Elections Committee shall have full responsibility for voting arrangements and shall treat information submitted to it in connection with its responsibilities as confidential. The National Representative assigned to the Council shall serve as an advisor to the committee when requested by the Council.
3. The Elections Committee will determine the form of the ballot and ensure that sufficient quantities are made available in good time to the Chief Returning Officer.
4. The Chief Returning Officer will be responsible for issuing, collecting, and counting ballots. The Chief Returning Officer must be fair and impartial and see that all arrangements are unquestionably democratic.
5. The voting will take place at the regular scheduled meeting in May. The vote will be by secret ballot.
6. Voting to fill one office will be conducted and completed, and recounts dealt with before balloting may begin to fill another office.
7. A majority of votes cast will be required before any candidate can be declared elected, and second and subsequent ballots will be taken if necessary to obtain a majority. On the second and subsequent ballots, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes in the previous ballot will be dropped.
8. In the event of a tie vote, a second and subsequent ballot(s) will be taken if necessary until a candidate receives a majority of votes cast and can be declared elected. In the event the tie vote persists, subsequent ballots may be deferred to the next scheduled meeting.
9. When two or more nominees are to be elected to any office by ballot, each delegate voting will be required to vote for the full number of candidates to be elected or the delegate's ballot will be declared spoiled.

10. Any delegate may request a recount of the votes for any election and a recount will be conducted if the request is supported, in a vote, by at least the number of delegates equal to the quorum for a regular meeting as set out in Article 7.

11. All election complaints by delegates will be submitted in writing to the Chief Returning Officer as soon as possible but in no circumstances will a complaint be valid if it is filed later than seven days after the election. The Chief Returning Officer, in conjunction with the Elections Committee, will investigate the complaint and issue a ruling as soon as practical and report the ruling to the very next regular meeting.

Section 1

~~The election of officers shall be held at the Annual General Meeting of each year.~~

Section 2 – Eligibility

~~To be eligible for nomination for any office, the nominee must be a duly accredited delegate from a Local Union and have attended not less than fifty percent (50%) of the Regular Meetings of the Council held during the preceding twelve months.~~

~~If a Local Union has not been affiliated to the Council for twelve months, the accredited delegate(s) from such Local Union shall be eligible for nomination, if the delegate has attended fifty percent (50%) of the regular meetings since the Local Union affiliated.~~

~~For the purposes of this section, the interpretation of delegate shall be:~~

~~"A member duly appointed as a delegate from a Local Union to Metro District Council, or his/her duly appointed successor, during the twelve months period."~~

Section 3

~~A delegate may be nominated for more than one office but shall hold only one office.~~

~~No more than 1 delegate per affiliated local should be represented on the Metro Executive Board.~~

~~If an elected officer is no longer an accredited delegate from an affiliated local union, their position will be declared vacant and be filled through by election.~~

Section 4 – Nominations

~~Nominations will be received at the Annual General Meeting held in the month of May. They will be accepted from delegates in attendance at the meeting, or in writing or electronically by the start of the meeting.~~

A member may accept nomination for a position while holding office in any position. If successful in the election, their resignation from their current position will take effect at that time.

Section 5 – Elections

The president of the council will appoint an Election Officer.

The Election Officer will be responsible for issuing, collecting, and counting ballots. The Election Officer must be fair and impartial and see that all arrangements are unquestionably democratic.

Voting to fill one office will be conducted and completed, and recounts dealt with before balloting may begin to fill another office.

A majority of votes cast will be required before any candidate can be declared elected, and second and subsequent ballots will be taken if necessary to obtain a majority. On the second and subsequent ballots, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes in the previous ballot will be dropped.

In the event of a tie vote, a second and subsequent ballot(s) will be taken if necessary until a candidate receives a majority of votes cast and can be declared elected. In the event the tie vote persists, subsequent ballots may be deferred to the next meeting.

When two or more nominees are to be elected to any office by ballot, each delegate voting will be required to vote for the full number of candidates to be elected or the delegate's ballot will be declared spoiled.

Any delegate may request a recount of the votes for any election and a recount will be conducted if the request is supported, in a vote, by at least the number of members equal to the quorum for a meeting as set out in Section 7(3).

All election complaints by members will be submitted in writing to the assigned National Representative as soon as possible but in no circumstances will a complaint be valid if it is filed later than seven days after the election. The National Representative will investigate the complaint and issue a ruling as soon as practical and report the ruling to the very next regular meeting.

Section 6 – By elections

Should an office fall vacant for any reason, the resulting by-election should be conducted as closely as possible in conformity with this section. The term of office for any position filled through a by-election will be the term that the vacated position was initially elected to fulfill.

ARTICLE NINE INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS

Section 1

The Oath of Office to be read by the newly-elected Officers is:

“I, _____, promise to perform the duties of my office, as set out in the Constitution and laws of the Canadian Union of Public Employees, faithfully and to the best of my ability for my term of office. As an Officer of the Council, I will always promote the harmony and dignity of the sessions by counsel and example. I also promise to turn over all property of the Council to my successor at the end of my term.”

APPENDIX - RULES OF ORDER

1. The President, or in their absence the Vice-President, shall take the chair at all meetings. In the absence of both the President and Vice-President, the Secretary Treasurer shall act as Chair. In the absence of the above three Officers, the Recording Secretary shall act as Chair.
2. No delegate, except a member of a Committee making a report, or the mover of a resolution, shall speak more than five minutes, or more than once on the same question, without the consent of the meeting, or until all who wish to speak have had an opportunity. Chairs and movers of a resolution shall be limited to fifteen minutes, except with the consent of the meeting.
3. The Presiding Officer shall state every question coming before the Council, and before allowing debate thereon, and again immediately before putting it to a vote, shall ask: Are you ready for the question? Should no member rise to speak, the question shall then be put.
4. A motion to be entertained by the Presiding Officer must be moved and seconded; both mover and seconder must be recognized by the Chair.
5. A motion to amend, or to amend an amendment, shall be in order but no motion to amend an amendment to an amendment shall be permitted. No amendment, or amendment to an amendment, which is a direct negative of the resolution shall be in order.
6. On motion, the regular order of business may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of those present, to deal with any urgent business.
7. All resolutions and motions other than those named in rule 17, or those to accept or adopt the report of a committee, shall, if requested by the Presiding Officer, be presented in writing before being put to the delegates.
8. At the request of any delegate, and upon a majority vote of those present, a question may be divided when the sense will allow it.
9. Any delegate having made a motion can withdraw it with the consent of the seconder, except that any motion once debated, cannot be withdrawn except by a majority vote of those present.
10. When a delegate wishes to speak on a question or to make a motion, the delegate shall rise and respectfully address the Presiding Officer, but except to state that they rise to a point of order or on a question of privilege, shall not proceed further until recognized by the Chair.

11. When two or more delegates rise to speak at the same time, the Presiding Officer shall decide which one is entitled to the floor.
12. Every delegate, while speaking, shall adhere to the question under debate and avoid all personal, indecorous or offensive language, as well as any poor reflection on the Council or delegate thereof.
13. If a delegate, while speaking, is called to order, they shall cease speaking until the point is determined; if it is decided they are in order, they may again proceed.
14. No religious discussion shall be permitted.
15. The Chair shall take no part in debate while presiding, but may yield the Chair in order to speak on any question before the Council, or to introduce a new question.
16. The Presiding Officer shall have the same rights as other members to vote on any question. In case of a tie vote, the Chair may cast the deciding vote if they have not already voted. If they choose to refrain from breaking the tie, the motion is Lost.
17. When a motion is before the Council, no other motion shall be in order except:
 1. to adjourn
 2. to put the previous question
 3. to lay on the table
 4. to postpone for an indefinite time
 5. to refer
 6. to divide or amendwhich motions shall have precedence in the order named. The first three shall be decided without debate.
18. A motion for the previous question, when regularly moved and seconded, shall be put in this form: Shall the main question now be put? If it is adopted, the Chair shall proceed to take the vote on the resolution and amendments thereto (if any) according to their priority. If an amendment or an amendment to an amendment is adopted, the original resolution, as amended, shall be put to the Council.
19. A motion to adjourn is in order except when a delegate has the floor or when delegates are voting. A motion to adjourn having been put and lost, shall not be in order again, if there is further business before the Council, until fifteen minutes have elapsed.
20. After the Presiding Officer declares the vote on a question and before the Council proceeds to another order of business, any delegate may ask for a vote verification. A standing vote shall then be taken and the Secretary Treasurer shall count same.
21. If any delegate wishes to challenge (appeal) a decision of the chair, the delegate must do so at the time the decision is made. If the challenge is seconded, the delegate shall be asked to state briefly the basis for the challenge. The Chair may then state briefly the basis for the decision, following which the Chair shall immediately and without debate put the question: "Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained?" A majority vote shall decide, except that in the case of a tie, the Chair is sustained.

22. After a question has been decided, any two delegates who have voted in the majority may, at the same or next meeting, move reconsideration thereof.
23. No delegate shall enter or leave a meeting during the initiation of new members, the installation of officers, or the taking of a vote.
24. The Council's business and proceedings of meetings are not to be divulged to any persons outside the Council or the Canadian Union of Public Employees.

In situations not covered by such Rules of Order, the National Constitution may provide guidance, but if the situation is not dealt with there, Bourinot's Rules of Order shall be consulted and applied.
